

“My philosophy for teaching Spanish is to start with basic conversational Spanish, and gradually progress to the more detailed conversational aspects, and finally to formal writing skills.”

Madeline Ortiz

Spanish

Mrs. Madeline Ortiz was born and raised in Cayey, Puerto Rico. She previously taught for Chicago Public Schools and Schaumburg District 54. She has attended the University of Puerto Rico, Florida International University, and Ashworth College. She has an Associate Degree in Early Childhood Education, and a Bachelor’s Degree in Social Science and History.

Madeline also served as a missionary for the Catholic Church in the Dominican Republic, and taught Catechism in Puerto Rico and Chicago.

About the Students

“I’m very proud of my students! Their hard work and diligence is evident in their progress. Their Spanish improves every day, and I look forward to our future conversations.”
